

Speaker Bureau

The Alabama Women's Commission Speakers' Bureau will serve as a resource for organizations across the State of Alabama seeking speaker(s) to address various women's issues.

Speakers who participate in the bureau will be those who are determined to be highly qualified and effective by the Commission. Speaker information will be provided on the website and will include name, speaker topics, resume/vita (to include past speaking engagements), and contact information. Organizations wishing to invite a speaker will contact the speaker directly. The Commission will not serve as a booking agency.

If you are interested in submitting an application for the Alabama Women's Commission Speaker's Bureau, please complete the form below and return it to the Alabama Women's Commission. The Commission will review your application and notify you if chosen to participate.

If you have any questions, please call Sarah Skipper, Executive Director, Alabama Women's Commission, at sarah.skipper@servealabama.gov or 334.202.6553.
